They will also be working one to one with families and carers, to help them to support their children complete their homework and improve their English. Volunteers will help to prepare snacks and drinks and encourage attendees to engage with activities.

About Bethany Christian Trust
Bethany Christian Trust exists to relieve the suffering and meet the long-term needs of homeless and vulnerable people. Our vision is that through Christian love in action homelessness will be reduced and vulnerable people empowered to live independently within society. Bethany operates services that take people from homelessness through to managing their own tenancy and building positive friendships.

Experience Required
Ideally, the volunteer should have experience in teaching or working with those with English as a second language. They should be friendly, encouraging and outgoing and able to support the staff in implementing health and safety procedures. Please note: this role is subject to a Disclosure check.
