Iona Café Volunteer

Reference code: VO18002

Our Iona Café serves the patients, visitors, staff and volunteers of St Columba's Hospice. It can be a busy, fast paced environment but we also aim for it to be warm, welcoming and friendly. As a volunteer you will help with all aspects of the café service, including: serving customers, clearing tables, washing up, preparing and serving hot food, maintaining excellent levels of hygiene, operating the till, keeping café and gift shop displays fully stocked and taking part in training.

About St Columba's Hospice Care

St Columba's Hospice provides specialist palliative and end-of-life care for people with progressive, far-advanced illness with from across Edinburgh and the Lothians. We also provide support for their relatives and carers. Our vision is that everyone within our community has access to excellent palliative care whoever they are, wherever they are and whenever they need it. We provide care within our bedded unit, and through Day Services, Outpatient appointments and our Community Palliative Care Team. Our Education Department provides education in palliative care for healthcare professionals, as well as carrying out research. To do all of this, we have 160 staff, and over 600 volunteers.
