

Volunteer Room Guide

Reference code: VO15600

As a volunteer room guide you'll be interacting with international visitors of Gladstone's Land directly, telling them of the property's fascinating history and helping them gain insight into what life was like on Edinburgh's Lawnmarket throughout the last 400 years. We also offer additional research or guiding opportunities, if requested.

About The National Trust for Scotland - Gladstone's Land

To protect and care for Scotland's heritage To provide opportunities for everyone to experience and value Scotland's heritage To promote the benefits of heritage To create an efficient and sustainable business which supports our conservation needs <https://www.nts.org.uk/our-work/our-strategy>

Experience Required

Essential: good communication skills, friendly and personable. Desirable: history or heritage knowledge, but information on the house will be provided.

Training Details

After an induction session we offer a shadowing shift which you would spend with other volunteers, familiarising yourself with the house. You are also welcome to join our tours for more information. Your first shift will be with one a staff member of seasoned volunteer (or solo if you feel confident)
