

Womens Group Volunteer

Reference code: VO08911

Seeking a flexible and committed woman to assist with a wide range of activities which change every week. These will be discussed and agreed in advance with you including presenting a light pre-prepared lunch, serving hot drinks and cleaning up afterwards. To assist with an activity, particularly craft activities. The ability to chat appropriately to the women, assisting or being alongside group members who may struggle with ability or language will be advantageous. Your input and feedback on group activities will be welcome.

About YMCA Edinburgh

YMCA Edinburgh is part of an inclusive global Christian movement that gives all, especially young people, space and opportunity to belong, contribute and thrive. We offer a range of tailored programs including: play rangers, play schemes, holiday clubs, after school and youth clubs, mentoring for vulnerable young people and support for women and families. Volunteers are critical to our ability to deliver these services.

Experience Required

You will be practical, able to work well in a team, able to relate and chat to a wide range of women and children, be flexible, work on your own initiative, be cheerful and have a sense of humour!
