Youth Worker Volunteer

Reference code: VO16894

As a Youth Worker, you will play a pivotal role in fostering the holistic development of young people from diverse cultural backgrounds aged 10-18. Beyond engaging in activities on Thursdays and Fridays, this role is distinguished by a strong human rights focus, committed to upholding the Convention on the Rights of the Child. In addition to promoting cultural integration, you will have a hands-on role in coordinating activities.

About Project Esperanza

Offers practical, emotional and integration support predominantly to families of African heritage but also supports a huge base of people from multi ethnic backgrounds.

Experience Required

Cultural Competence: Respectful understanding of diverse cultures. Mentoring: Providing guidance for personal and employability development. Communication: Effective cross-cultural communication and active listening.

Adaptability: Flexibility in response to changing group dynamics.

Training Details

You will be volunteering alongside our trained youth workers, who will give you a full induction and training surrounding what is expected of you and the basics of safeguarding.
